

South Dartmoor Community College and Atrium Studio School

SENDCo

Full time Permanent Salary L6 - L10 £47,735 to £52,723

Start Date: April 2021, although other start dates will be considered

South Dartmoor Community College is seeking to appoint a highly effective, well organised and enthusiastic SENDCo. This is a full time, permanent position. The successful candidate will work closely with the Leadership Team and SEND team to ensure outstanding provision is delivered all students across all Key Stages in both schools.

The College is on a rapid improvement journey and has a strong staff team in place to ensure every child is enabled to fulfil their potential. We have excellent pastoral support and our students report that they feel very happy and safe at the school. We are proud of our students. The relationships between staff and students are strong. Community engagement is also an important feature of our schools; we have an active Parent/Teacher Association (FOSDA—Friends of South Dartmoor Academy).

If you want to work in an inspiring, fully inclusive environment with students who want to succeed, and friendly, supportive staff, then we want to hear from you! You will join a passionate and dedicated staff team, and a Trust who is committed to providing professional development and opportunities for all colleagues. Part of the WeST Trust, we are an 11-18 College situated in Ashburton on the edge of Dartmoor. With impressive facilities, the schools currently cater for approximately 950 students. Devon is a lovely place to live with the stunning Dartmoor and the beautiful Devon and Cornwall Coastline on your doorstep.
